Success Story

This is an experience that I take great pleasure in sharing. I fell down some steps and suffered a full thickness rotor tear in my shoulder. I was headed for surgery, but my doctor first recommended physical therapy. I went to "Bounce Back" because of their reputation. With their expertise, I have gotten to the point of NOT requiring surgery. Both Stephanie and Charan developed a program to help me become one of their success stories. It was quite evident to me that the main reason for their successful practice is their professionalism, love of what they do and the care they devote to each and every one of their clients. It is unusual to find two people that make coming to therapy a wonderful experience and be cured at the same time.

I wish them continued growth and success.

Sincerely,
